Constantinople, January 22.

SEveral Officers appointed by the Grand Signior to seize the Goods and Estate of the late Grand Visier Cara Mustapha, and those that were strangled with him, are come hither from Adrianople; They have found in his Seraglio here 7000 Crowns in Money, some Jewels, and a Crown of Pearles of great value, (which they have sent to the Grand Signior) and 800 Slaves, of which the greatest part are Women. The Reis Effendi or Chancelor, the Grand Visiers Physitian, who was a Grecian, his Interpreter, and all his other chief Officers have been strangled. The 28th of the last month Cara Ibrahim Caimacam attending the Grand Signiors Person was declared Grand Visier, and the Grand Signior sent him a very rich Vest; but he did not long enjoy his new Honor, for on the ninth instant he was Strangled by order of the Grand Signior; which, it's said, was done to content the Janisaries, who were very much dissatisfied with the new Visier: And it's said that Cara Hassan Oglu Caimacam of this City is named to succeed him. Prince Soliman Brother of the Grand Signior, hath lately received Letters from him, full of assurances of his friendship and kindness. The Chiaus which was sent to Persia, is returned within these few days, having, it's said, been able to obtain no other answer at that Court, than that the King of Persia is not obliged to give to any Body an account of his Designs. There arrived at the Court of Persia before this Chiaus came from thence, Deputies from the People of Georgia, who were very kindly received. The Sieur Donato Ambassador from the Republick of Venice is still here, but it's believed he will embark on one of the Ships of the Dutch Convoy, having the Grand Signior's leave to depart.

Stockholme, March 8. The King of Sweden is now at Upsal to view his Troops in those Parts. And it's said his Majesty will have a very good Army in the Field this Summer if there be occasion for it.

Warsaw, March 16. Our Letters from Cracow inform us, that the King of Poland who parted from thence towards the latter end of the last month for Niemirow, had been stopt for several days in his Journey by the ill Weather. That his Majesty had received Letters from the Sieur Lubaczewski, giving an account, that he had distributed the Moneys, he was charged with, among the Cossacks according to his Majesties order; That he had reestablished the Sieur Kuniski in his command of General of the Cossacks, and had made Colonel Mohila his Lieutenant General, and that thereupon the said Kuniski was marched with a Body of Cossacks towards the Province of Budziac, to secure several Posts which cover Podolia on that side. We are assured from all hands, that the King of Poland will besiege Caminiec, and that the necessary Preparations are making for it: It is said the place is in no very good condition, that the Garison is very much weakened, and that they want Provisions and Ammunition, but this we are told with so much uncertainty, that no great heed is to be given to it. From the Conference at Radzin, we have an account that the Polish and Moscovite Commissioners had not yet brought Matters to any conclusion; that the first insisted upon the Restitution of Kiovia and some other places, which have been for several years in the hands of the Moscovites, but these would not hear of it, and that it was believed, for the preventing a misunderstanding between the two Crowns in the present juncture of Affairs, they would at last agree to renew the Truce for some years, and to refer to a fitter time the accommodation of these Pretentions.

Vienna, March 31. From Hungary we have an account, That the Rebels have polleted themselves of the Quarters which the Troops of Lithuania and those commanded by the Prince of Lubomirski Lately quitted in Upper-Hungary; That Count Teckely was marching towards Cassaw and Eperies to reinforce the Garisons he has in those places. That the Imperial Troops are drawing together near Trenchin. And that General Caprara, whom the Emperor has appointed for the present, to command his Forces in Hungary, was expected in few days at Newsol.

Cologne, April 7. The Deputies of the Elector of Triet and the Duke of Neuburg are returned home, not having been able to prevail with the Commonalty to accept of the Imperial Commission they were charged with for the composing the Affairs of this City. It's said that our Elector intends to remove from hence very suddenly to Bonne. The Letters from Munick assure us, that the Elector of Bavaria will have an Army of 20000 men in the Field the beginning of the next month. And that the Troops of Franconia and Suabia will likewise make a considerable Body, and that these will be commanded by Prince Waldeck.

Hamburg, April 8. The Danish Troops continue in the Quarters they have taken in Mecklenburg and Lawenburg. And it's said that the Duke of Zell as Colonel of the Circle of the Lower-Saxony, has ordered several Troops to march to oblige them to dislodge. The Count de Berka, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor to the King of Sweden, parted from hence this week on his Journey for Stockholm. Our Letters from Poland tell us, that very great Preparations are making in that Kingdom for the Campagne; and that the King of Poland intends to employ his main Forces this Summer in Podolia and towards Moldavia and Wallachia.

Versailles, April 12. The third instant the Count de Mayan, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy, had Audience of the King, and complemented his Majesty upon the Duke his Masters Marriage with Madamoiselle; and the same day had likewise Audience of the Dauphin, the Dauphiness, the Duke of Burgundy, the Duke d'Anjou, and the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans, upon the same subject. The 10th the Marquis de Ferrera Ambassador from Savoy, being conducted by the Sieur de Bonneuil Introductor of Ambassadors, carried to the Duke of Mayne, the Duke of Savoy's Procuration to marry Madamoiselle in his name. The same day the contract of Marriage was signed by the King,
